Imagine that Kelly baked some cookies, but she didn't know how good it was. Kelly approached Justine, who knows a lot about baking, and asked "How did my cookie taste?"

Here's how Justine actually felt about Kelly's cookie, on a scale of 0 to 3 hearts:

If Justine wanted to BOTH make Kelly feel good AND give accurate and informative feedback, what would Justine be most likely to say?

"It "
